Rooted in legacy, we created a piece for ATS Infrastructure's most recognised project, ATS Village – one that brought the company deserved recognition and became a milestone in their story. Adding The Ink Moon touch, the piece found its own voice. A commission that became art.

Colour – matched to the brand's palette while staying true to our artistic voice. Beige and green, reinterpreted.

Detail – floral elements added to elevate the scene from promotional to painterly. Less advertisement, more art, not overpowering.

Identity – a subtle representation of the founder woven into the composition. A symbol of the company's reputation.

Placement – logo incorporated with space and intention, allowing the art to breathe and the brand to be seen.

DAR GROUP
dream & beyond

Pujashree – makers devotional products for millions of Indian homes, under the Dar Group – came to us with a brief rooted in devotion and legacy. They wanted a piece that carried the weight of faith. Strong, masculine, and unmistakably Hanuman Ji.

We brought the Ram Naam chant encircling the sun, the light of divinity radiating outward, and a presence that commands the room it enters. The logos were woven in on their request quietly, so the art could still lead.

Strong visual representation of Hanuman Ji, highlighted by the Sun, surrounded by Ram Naam chant

Both brand logos integrated in 3 different places as specified.

- Dar Group logo mark incorporated into the sun in Hanuman ji's hand.
- Pujashree logo mark used as a print in Hanuman Ji's vastra.
- Pujashree wordmark at the border of Hanuman Ji's vastra.

Contemporary, masculine look punctuated by slate grey textured background.
